

U.S. Business Law Academy

Columbia Law School is pleased to announce the July, 2015 launch of a new U.S. Business Law Academy for foreign-trained students and lawyers. The three-week program will feature an introductory survey of select topics covering U.S. business law and legal institutions, all taught by preeminent scholars from Columbia's world renowned faculty.

In addition to classroom instruction, the Academy will include visits to professional and cultural sites in New York City, social and networking events, and talks with leading practitioners, academic experts, and career strategists.
